ROCKETS

SEAN BARBER

Founder

Rockets was started in 2007 by Sean Barber as a small 120 seater restaurant in Rivonia. Little did anyone know that that was the start of a brand that has opened 16 shops in 17 years and has become the lifestyle leader in all things hospitality.

At the core of its success has been Rockets' unwavering commitment to produce the best quality and most consistent food in whatever outlet it has opened. From the 5th December 2007 to current day, every meal has been shown the utmost love and attention in order to reflect the quality that is Rockets.

We have never been more excited to showcase this new menu, one that now encompasses a theatre element in 14 of its dishes. Food on a plate is love made visible, and we are excited to share this love with you!

CHEF DRIAAN

Group Executive Chef

Executive Chef Driaan is a Fusion Chef who delights in the decade-old cuisine, not only for mixing flavours and cultures but for the creative freedom it gives him to bring his imagination to life in a uniquely South African way.

Born in the Free State, Driaan has had humble beginnings and never thought he would be a chef when he started to experiment with flavours as a teenager.

Playing with theatre, texture and his memories of childhood, Driaan has been carrying his heart on his sleeve by dishing up his emotions on plates and pallets for the past 20 years.

He wants his food to be an unforgettable memory that evokes feelings of nostalgia from a time and place you have never been to before.

Chef Driaan moved to Johannesburg 10 years ago where he established two well known brands in the industry which catapulted him into winning a number of awards & two RASA Rosetta Award in 2022.
